01 Mermaid Roshan and the Song Beneath the Pool

01 p01.1

STAGING: Cover: Roshan leads a low swimming arc; Rumi, Hana and Nari behind her, Duri beside her. Pearl bridge and shell stage establish one connected under-pool city. Cover art is a separate pending view.

Narrator: An undersea adventure with Rumi

02 A place in the song

01 p02.1

STAGING: Pool-room establishing view. Preserve the seahorse fountain and turning rainbow.

Narrator: The castle's candle was still missing. In Rumi's pool, the rainbow kept turning.

02 p02.2

STAGING: Roshan watches Rumi warm up, then touches her own throat. Invitation has a real personal purpose.

Rumi: Come sing with us tonight!

Roshan: What if my voice is too little?

03 p02.3

STAGING: Rumi offers a hand; Roshan chooses to take it.

Rumi: You can start beside me.

Narrator: Roshan wanted to try. She took a breath and followed Rumi down.

03 The neighbourhood below

STAGING: Broad geography: bridge/tram left, music room centre, bathhouse nearby, shell stage with lower current arch right. Pool portal remains above the city.

Narrator: Below the pool lay curved roofs, lantern lanes and gardens of waving kelp.

Roshan: We're still in Pearl Castle?

Rumi: Every bit!

---

02 p03.2

STAGING: A blue current thread passes music room, then stage arch, then curls toward shops, bathhouse and tram; arrows belong only to planning, no new power source.

Rumi: The current carries our evening song. The shops answer, then the bathhouse, then the tram.

---

03 p03.3

STAGING: Residents prepare for the evening; projected shop pictograms, shell bowls and peach window lamps.

Narrator: Windows were opening. Tables were filling. Soon, the first song would begin.

04 The water changes

01 p04.1

STAGING: Bubble tram approaches overhead. A loose kelp leaf traces the low clear arch.

Narrator: Roshan raced after the tram bubbles.

Rumi: Our path is underneath. Watch the leaf.

02 p04.2

STAGING: Tram passes; one short water pulse bends the kelp. Rumi rests a hand on the pillar; Roshan copies.

Narrator: WHOOSH! The passing tram swept the water sideways.

Rumi: Hold here. Let the rush pass.

03 p04.3

STAGING: Pulse settles; both follow the leaf around the pillar instead of fighting against it.

Roshan: Now it curves this way!

Narrator: She slowed her tail. The water carried them through.

05 Duri has a delivery

01 p05.1

STAGING: Duri with his basket of small bells and a stage banner. Mint floral shell and four lavender flippers fully readable.

Duri: I'm Duri. These bells invite our neighbours to the song. This banner goes to the stage.

02 p05.2

STAGING: One bell drifts to kelp; Roshan uses the curling current learned on p4.

Narrator: Ding! One bell escaped. Roshan followed the leaf, turned low and caught it.

Duri: You saw the little way through!

03 p05.3

STAGING: Duri points to the bridge route, then his bulky banner. Roshan offers to share the load.

Roshan: Can we help carry it?

Duri: I'll manage. Meet you after my round!

Narrator: Off he paddled, basket wobbling.

06 Two more friends

01 p06.1

STAGING: Music room: Rumi joins tall copper-haired Hana and younger navy-bobbed Nari. Distinct costumes and one-tail anatomy.

Hana: I'm Hana. I dance BIG!

Nari: I'm Nari. I hear tiny things.

02 p06.2

STAGING: Hana begins a broad turn; her costume ribbon brushes Nari. Nari holds her small shell drum.

Nari: Room for one small drummer, please!

Hana: Oops. Smaller turn.

---

03 p06.3

STAGING: Hana makes room; Roshan sits inside the trio formation rather than outside it.

Rumi: We take turns. Sing, listen, answer.

Roshan: I can try the listening part.

07 One small note

STAGING: Trio begins a quiet original refrain. Roshan watches their breathing.

Trio: Little voice, big blue sea.
Sing with you, sing with me.

---

02 p07.2

STAGING: Hana encourages enthusiastically; Nari makes a gap between drumbeats for Roshan.

Hana: Your turn!

Narrator: Roshan tried a note. It vanished beneath the drum.

Nari: I'll leave you a space.

---

STAGING: Nari pauses; the trio listens. Roshan tries again, heard at close range.

Roshan: La...

Rumi: There you are.

Narrator: For one little moment, Roshan liked her own voice.

08 The missing answer

01 p08.1

STAGING: The trio sends the next line toward the open windows; map echoes p3 landmarks.

Trio: Make a space and let it through.
There's a place for me and you.

02 p08.2

STAGING: Three small views: quiet shop window, bathhouse curtain, tram ribbons barely moving.

Narrator: No answer from the shops. None from the bathhouse. Even the tram was quiet.

Hana: Maybe we need to sing louder?

03 p08.3

STAGING: Roshan hears an uneven tiny tap between the notes; her hand rises before Hana can drown it out.

Roshan: Wait. I heard something.

Narrator: Tap. Tap. Then nothing.

09 Follow the tapping

A / Bridge rescue

01 p09.1

STAGING: Nari stops drumming. Roshan separates irregular tapping from a bell ringing.

Nari: A courier bell?

Roshan: No. Someone is knocking.

02 p09.2

STAGING: They reach the bridge. Sound seems to come from two arches; show left kelp route and right open echo chamber.

Narrator: Under the bridge, the tapping bounced from arch to arch.

Hana: This way!

03 p09.3

STAGING: Hana swims toward the loud echo, finds an empty recess and turns back. A meaningful wrong first route.

Narrator: Hana found only stone. The loudest sound was an echo.

04 p09.4

STAGING: Roshan holds still; Nari leaves a silent gap. A faint tap comes from the low kelp arch.

Roshan: Let it finish.

Nari: There. Under the fronds.

05 p09.5

STAGING: Roshan follows a leaf toward the low arch. Rumi keeps Hana and Nari together.

Narrator: A little leaf curled into the same opening. Roshan followed it.

10 Through the low arch

A / Bridge rescue

01 p10.1

STAGING: A tram approaches above. The fronds begin to lean; Roshan recognises the setup from p4.

Roshan: The tram! Hold the pillar.

02 p10.2

STAGING: Pulse passes; all four maintain their holds. No separation or injury.

Narrator: WHOOSH! Kelp streamed across the entrance. The friends held on.

03 p10.3

STAGING: Rumi keeps kelp aside once the pulse settles. Roshan leads with a small tail turn.

Rumi: Now. One at a time.

Narrator: Roshan slipped low. Hana folded her great fan fin close.

04 p10.4

STAGING: Nari carries drum close to chest through the gap rather than letting it snag.

Nari: No big drumbeats here!

05 p10.5

STAGING: At the inner recess they see Duri tapping from between two crates. Clear establishing view before close-ups.

Narrator: Beyond the kelp, a lantern lit two crates. Between them was Duri.

11 Caught in the banner

A / Bridge rescue

01 p11.1

STAGING: Two empty concert prop crates rest on a sloping stone ledge. Duri fits between them but cannot turn his shell. Banner loop catches his shell and nearer crate corner.

Duri: I tried to move these boxes out of the path. They slid together.

02 p11.2

STAGING: Close on loop and floral shell; no neck constriction, wounds or frightening crushing.

Duri: Then the banner caught. I can paddle, but I can't turn.

03 p11.3

STAGING: Duri taps crate with one free flipper. Roshan answers by touching the same crate.

Roshan: We heard you. We're staying here.

04 p11.4

STAGING: Hana begins pushing the nearer crate; the cloth draws tight instead of freeing Duri.

Hana: I can make a space!

Narrator: The crate moved. The loop tightened.

05 p11.5

STAGING: Roshan immediately stops the push. All hands hold stable; Duri remains safe.

Roshan: Stop! That cloth has to come free first.

12 A different plan

A / Bridge rescue

01 p12.1

STAGING: Overhead close plan: nearer crate/banner corner, Duri in gap, far crate held by Hana; same orientation as p11.

Narrator: Roshan looked at the corner, the loop and Duri's shell.

02 p12.2

STAGING: Roshan gently moves nearer crate back just enough to slacken cloth, without undoing any completed rescue.

Roshan: A tiny bit this way.

Narrator: The loop loosened.

03 p12.3

STAGING: Rumi places fingers under loose fabric, clear hand-shell contact.

Rumi: I can lift it. Keep this crate still.

04 p12.4

STAGING: Roshan takes nearer crate; Hana far crate. Nari positions where she can see overhead tram and all hands.

Roshan: Hana, hold that one. Nari, watch the bridge.

Nari: I'll tell you when the water changes.

05 p12.5

STAGING: Rumi lifts the loop over the widest shell edge while Duri folds his flippers in.

Narrator: Duri tucked in. Rumi lifted slowly. The cloth rose over his shell.

13 The rush returns

A / Bridge rescue

01 p13.1

STAGING: Banner is fully off Duri; the freed cloth floats above his shell. First concrete gained state.

Rumi: The loop is free!

Duri: I can turn a little!

02 p13.2

STAGING: Nari sees tram lanterns crossing above; kelp and hair bend before the pulse.

Nari: Here comes the rush! Hold!

03 p13.3

STAGING: Pulse nudges nearer crate along slope. Roshan braces; Hana keeps far crate stable; Rumi supports Duri.

Narrator: WHOOSH! Roshan's crate slid a hand-width. She planted both hands against it.

04 p13.4

STAGING: Duri's basket lifts; loose bells join it in one visible eddy/kelp pocket behind pillar, just beyond safe recess. No renewed cloth entanglement or offscreen lost bells.

Duri: My bells!

Narrator: His basket tipped into the curling water.

05 p13.5

STAGING: Roshan starts to reach for basket; crate begins turning. Her decision has an immediate visible consequence.

Narrator: Roshan reached after it. The crate shifted.

Rumi: Stay with Duri. The bells can wait!

06 p13.6

STAGING: Roshan returns both hands to brace; Rumi keeps Duri safe. Nari tracks basket circling a clear recess behind pillar; no risky mid-rescue recovery.

Narrator: Roshan held her place. Nari watched the basket circle behind the pillar.

Nari: I can still see it!

14 Back out together

A / Bridge rescue

01 p14.1

STAGING: Pulse ends; Nari checks fronds, then counts. Hana and Roshan have maintained stable crate positions.

Nari: The water is quiet. One. Two. Gently.

02 p14.2

STAGING: Roshan slides nearer crate sideways off slope onto adjacent flat patch; Hana steadies far crate. Gap opens behind Duri.

Narrator: Roshan pushed sideways. This time, the space stayed open.

03 p14.3

STAGING: Duri turns shell edge-on into newly opened gap and backs into Roshan's now-free hands, all four flippers free. Nearer crate rests on flat patch.

Roshan: Back toward me, Duri.

Narrator: Four little flippers paddled. Duri backed clear.

04 p14.4

STAGING: Primary action: now Duri is free, Hana slides far bridge crate off slope onto separate flat patch. Roshan/Duri safe in supporting background; their clear offpanel speech continues. Both crates stable before departure.

Narrator: Hana settled the other box on flat stone.

Duri: You didn't leave me.

Roshan: You kept tapping. We kept listening.

05 p14.5

STAGING: Now Duri is safely free, Nari points to same eddy/kelp pocket; Rumi follows curling water, scoops loose bells into basket then catches basket. No new trap or lost possessions.

Nari: There's the basket!

Narrator: Rumi scooped the loose bells into it. The whole delivery came home.

06 p14.6

STAGING: Duri accepts shared carrying; Hana takes banner, Rumi basket. Nari taps a quiet reply.

Duri: Will you carry these with me?

Hana: Gladly.

Narrator: Tap. Tap. Tap. This time, four friends answered.

15 The warm-current bathhouse

01 p15.1

STAGING: Quiet mint tiled bathhouse. Duri's towel and all four flippers readable; Nari's cream bunny-ear towel appears here.

Narrator: At the bathhouse, warm water untangled their hair and hurried feelings.

02 p15.2

STAGING: Roshan and Duri share a candid closer view; others listen without talking over them.

Duri: I thought I had to carry everything myself.

Roshan: I nearly chased your bells. I forgot you needed my hands.

03 p15.3

STAGING: Rumi squeezes Roshan's hand. Roshan acknowledges reliance on the others.

Rumi: Then you stayed. We could help because you let us.

Roshan: I was scared. I'm glad you were there.

04 p15.4

STAGING: Hana notices Nari's towel ears; Duri relaxes flippers and laughs. Gentle landing after action.

Hana: Are we singers or sea bunnies?

Nari: Very clean sea bunnies!

16 The enormous supper

01 p16.1

STAGING: Preserve selected lavish feast: wide coral table filling foreground, three piled clusters of gimbap/golden snacks, tiered sweets/side dishes and fruit, four shell cups. Original selected food/table source controls design.

Narrator: Supper filled a great coral table: seaweed rolls, golden dumplings, fruit towers and little cakes.

02 p16.2

STAGING: Hana sprawls on cream couch; Duri waits for a small seat. Do not obscure Hana's face with repeated fin crops.

Hana: I dance BIG. I rest BIG too.

Nari: Room for one small turtle, please.

03 p16.3

STAGING: Hana folds long fin; Duri settles beside Roshan. Basket is parked safely nearby.

Narrator: Hana folded her fin. Duri chose a tiny cake from an enormous plate.

04 p16.4

STAGING: Roshan starts quiet original line; friends join. Warm expressive group moment before interruption.

Roshan: Make a space and let it through.

Everyone: There's a place for me and you.

17 Only our voices!

01 p17.1

STAGING: Same feast and cream couch. Magician enters through curtain with top hat; performer unfurls a banner with same motif as rescue cloth.

Narrator: POOF! A top hat bobbed through the curtain.

Magician Imp: Make way for our spectacular show!

---

STAGING: Performer's banner floats above table without sweeping food away. Duri rises beside Rumi, recognises design.

Performer Imp: Enormous scenery! Enormous voices!

Duri: That's your banner. Your boxes trapped me.

---

03 p17.3

STAGING: Duri points toward stage; distinguish three additional gate crates from the two bridge crates.

Duri: I saw three more under the stage.

Magician Imp: Our finest props! Nobody touch them!

---

04 p17.4

STAGING: Imps hurry off to stage. Roshan makes a decision; trio follows, Duri can choose safe route with them.

Roshan: The city stopped answering. We need to see what those props are blocking.

Narrator: They left the feast and followed the banner.

18 A stage with no answer

01 p18.1

STAGING: Show stage above and golden current arch below: two small forward crates and one larger rear crate, independently floor-supported; weak blue thread beneath. Public song route visible beyond arch.

Narrator: Three crates crowded the current arch. The ribbons above it hardly stirred.

02 p18.2

STAGING: Stage-side imps practise loud duet; voices remain nearby, distant windows remain quiet.

Performer Imp: LOUDER! Why won't anybody cheer?

Rumi: They can't hear you through all that scenery.

03 p18.3

STAGING: Roshan sees blue thread under large crate, tying to p4 leaf and rescue route.

Roshan: There's a little way through. But not enough room for the song.

Narrator: The magic was still there. The path was blocked.

19 The courier path

01 p19.1

STAGING: Duri pauses near bridge after frightening experience; Roshan offers companionable hand/flipper contact, not a forced return.

Duri: I know the service passage. It's narrow.

Roshan: We'll go together.

02 p19.2

STAGING: Duri confidently leads low path behind pillar. Hana folds fin, Nari listens at bend; completed rescue not threatened.

Narrator: Duri turned beneath the bridge. Hana followed with small, careful turns.

Hana: Big fin. Little doorway.

03 p19.3

STAGING: Passage opens beside right storage ledge below stage; show ledge clear, outside straight outflow and large enough for all three crates.

Duri: Here. I leave parcels on that flat ledge.

Roshan: A safe place for the props!

20 What each friend can do

01 p20.1

STAGING: Clear spatial plan: arch centre/low, stage above, right storage ledge outside straight outflow, safe pillar left rear. Two small crates beside/in front of square-aligned large crate, all independently supported on floor; no stack.

Roshan: Move the small boxes first. Then the big one. Keep the arch clear.

02 p20.2

STAGING: Hana tests banner as a broad soft catcher; Nari taps and pauses; Duri observes ledge from safe pillar.

Hana: I can catch their flying props.

Nari: I can count the moves.

Duri: I'll watch the way out.

03 p20.3

STAGING: Rumi floats beside Roshan; request comes before combat. Nari's bathhouse towel was removed offpanel between17and18; mint hooded jacket/peach collar remain.

Rumi: I'll stay beside you.

Roshan: First, let's ask them to help.

21 The first request

B / Current-gate battle

01 p21.1

STAGING: Roshan faces costumed imps at shell stage. The three gate crates and unused right ledge visible in context; two bridge crates stay at bridge.

Roshan: Your bridge boxes trapped Duri. These ones are blocking our song. Will you move them?

02 p21.2

STAGING: Performer reacts defensively; motive is being heard, not a new evil conspiracy.

Performer Imp: We made the biggest show. We need the biggest scenery!

03 p21.3

STAGING: Roshan points to safe ledge and silent shop windows, offering concrete solution.

Roshan: It can stand here. Then your neighbours can answer.

04 p21.4

STAGING: Magician refuses, then begins bubble puff with purple hand. Preserve navy coat/top hat/red bow tie/trousers/shoes and original bare purple hands; no new gloves, cape or costume transformation.

Magician Imp: Nobody moves our props!

Narrator: He flicked his hand. POOF!

22 Bubbles across the way

B / Current-gate battle

01 p22.1

STAGING: A directional bubble wall separates stage approach from crates. Roshan brakes; head and hands readable through clear space.

Narrator: Bubbles rolled across the arch. Roshan stopped before they swept her sideways.

02 p22.2

STAGING: Performer tosses foam star; Hana opens rescue banner across its flight line.

Performer Imp: Our dazzling star!

Hana: Our very soft catcher!

03 p22.3

STAGING: Banner bows and catches star. Hana braces fin against stage edge while floating, no mermaid feet; Nari ducks clearly beneath it.

Narrator: WHUMP! The star landed in the cloth. Nari ducked beneath its corner.

04 p22.4

STAGING: Rumi starts a distinct original work-song; Hana/Nari join while catching/counting. Singing coordinates physical moves, never acts as an attack or removes crates.

Trio: Catch the star and let it sway.

05 p22.5

STAGING: Roshan watches rising bubbles, not trying to outsing them. Duri points to low current from safe pillar.

Duri: Below!

Roshan: I see it.

23 A gap between the puffs

B / Current-gate battle

01 p23.1

STAGING: Bubble wall cycles upward with a clear interval beneath. Roshan follows blue thread with her eyes.

Narrator: A puff rose. Another followed. Between them, the little blue current kept curling.

02 p23.2

STAGING: Nari leaves one drumbeat silent so she can hear the next puff starting.

Nari: Wait for it...

03 p23.3

STAGING: Magician draws breath for puff; Rumi pivots aside. Roshan remains braced until interval.

Narrator: Rumi spun clear. The bubbles swept past the empty space.

04 p23.4

STAGING: Nari signals clear low interval. One readable diagonal dive, one-tail anatomy, no whole-body blur.

Nari: Now, Roshan!

05 p23.5

STAGING: Roshan folds low, swims beneath cloud and turns at pillar in same direction as learned p4 route.

Narrator: Roshan dipped, turned and followed the blue thread under the bubbles.

06 p23.6

STAGING: She reaches first small crate from below. Establish successful position before next task; Rumi answers with next work-song line before following.

Roshan: I'm through. Rumi, this side!

Rumi: Make a little swimming way.

24 Two boxes out

B / Current-gate battle

01 p24.1

STAGING: Rumi follows same timed gap. Hana holds foam catcher above; Nari counts from stage edge.

Narrator: Rumi slipped through after her. Above them, Hana kept the star out of their way.

02 p24.2

STAGING: Roshan and Rumi each have visible two-hand contact on first small crate; slide to right ledge.

Nari: One. Two. Gently!

Narrator: The first little crate slid onto the flat ledge.

03 p24.3

STAGING: Duri confirms first crate flat/stable from nearby safe position, without heavy lifting.

Duri: It's flat. Leave it there!

04 p24.4

STAGING: Rumi and Roshan repeat with second small crate, altered approach because blue thread is clearer. First remains on ledge.

Roshan: The next one. Turn this corner toward me.

05 p24.5

STAGING: Second settles beside first; Nari sees ribbons begin stirring. Larger crate still blocks main arch. Rumi swims back up to stage, Roshan stays by large crate.

Narrator: Two boxes out. The ribbons trembled. Rumi swam back up to the stage.

Rumi: One big box to go.

Trio: Leave a beat and keep it slow.

25 Big moves, soft finish

B / Current-gate battle

01 p25.1

STAGING: Performer pulls banner edge to reclaim star, making cloth taut. Hana stays balanced and offers release rather than tug-of-war.

Performer Imp: Give back our star!

Hana: Here it comes!

---

02 p25.2

STAGING: Hana tilts soft catcher and Nari tips star with drum rim, directing it to padded cushions already by performer. No hard strike.

Narrator: Hana tipped the cloth. Nari nudged the foam star toward the cushion pile.

---

03 p25.3

STAGING: Star drifts into performer's arms; backward surprise step lands him on cushions, safe and comical.

Performer Imp: Oof!

Narrator: He sat down in a great squash of pillows.

---

04 p25.4

STAGING: Magician aims broad puff in response; own broad bubble stream lifts/tilts hat over eyes. Clear causal puff-hat contact detail, same costume.

Magician Imp: An even bigger POOF!

Narrator: His bubbles flipped his hat over his eyes.

---

05 p25.5

STAGING: Rumi offers elbow/hand to guide magician onto same cushions instead of leaving him blind to stumble.

Rumi: Cushions this way.

Hana: Big moves. Soft finish.

---

06 p25.6

STAGING: Residual final bubble puff drifts between Roshan below and friends above. Two cleared crates remain safe; no regression.

Narrator: The last big puff hid the arch. Roshan was already beside the final crate.

26 Pulling is not enough

B / Current-gate battle

01 p26.1

STAGING: Hana passes the now-empty rescue banner down to Roshan through last thinning puff. Show explicit handoff; performer's interruption banner remains a different prop.

Hana: Try this!

Narrator: Hana passed the soft banner down to Roshan.

---

02 p26.2

STAGING: Roshan loops freed end of banner through large crate handle; cloth can reach up to ledge, no tied actor limbs.

Roshan: I can pull it like the little ones.

---

03 p26.3

STAGING: She pulls straight toward right ledge; square crate skews diagonally and trailing corner catches a short side projection of right arch jamb. Floor is flat with open pivot space in front; no full-width threshold.

Narrator: The box moved, turned and stuck.

Roshan: Come on...

---

04 p26.4

STAGING: Close on caught corner, short side lip and taut cloth; she stops pulling, learned snag inspection echoed from p11.

Narrator: She pulled harder. The corner pressed harder too. Roshan let the cloth go slack.

---

05 p26.5

STAGING: Roshan calls to friends across residual bubbles; loud hiss masks call. Show why no immediate answer comes, rather than making friends ignore her.

Roshan: I need you!

Narrator: HISSS! The last puff rushed over her voice.

---

06 p26.6

STAGING: Bubbles hide hand signal but their hiss is fading. Roshan taps crate three times as Duri did in rescue; Duri hears knock through quieter interval from safe route.

Narrator: The bubbles hid her wave. She knocked instead. Tap. Tap. Tap.

27 Turn before sliding

B / Current-gate battle

01 p27.1

STAGING: Nari pauses drumming; Duri identifies Roshan's taps. Rumi and Hana turn toward arch.

Duri: That's Roshan!

Nari: Leave a space. Listen.

02 p27.2

STAGING: Friends use low gap; Duri guides along safe corridor, not through a renewed trap.

Narrator: They followed Duri beneath the last bubbles. Roshan was waiting, hands resting on the crate.

03 p27.3

STAGING: Duri points to short side projection/diagonal corner and demonstrates small turn with bell basket. Show free floor/pivot arc beside jamb, drawing on courier experience.

Duri: My parcels catch there too. Turn the corner first. Then slide.

04 p27.4

STAGING: Roshan assigns contacts: Hana pushes far corner into open forecourt; Roshan guides near corner; Rumi keeps banner slack during rotation; Nari counts; Duri watches from outside pivot path.

Roshan: Hana, turn that corner. Rumi, keep the cloth loose. Duri, tell us when it's clear.

05 p27.5

STAGING: Short rotation around floor-supported near corner swings caught trailing corner away from short jamb lip into open forecourt; show gained clearance before any sideways pull. Rumi's banner remains slack.

Nari: One. Two. Turn!

Narrator: The corner swung away from the stone.

Duri: Clear!

28 The blue ribbon runs

B / Current-gate battle

01 p28.1

STAGING: Maintain rotated crate from p27; after Duri's Clear, Rumi takes banner with Roshan and pulls; Hana supports far edge. Reset grips for sideways slide without losing orientation.

Roshan: Rumi, pull with me. Now slide. Together!

02 p28.2

STAGING: Crate moves onto right ledge beside two smaller crates; arch progressively revealed. Big action panel, consistent geography.

Narrator: SWISH! The last box slid clear. Three boxes rested safely at the side.

03 p28.3

STAGING: Full golden arch now clear. Blue current flows to shops/bathhouse/tram; hanging ribbons lift, no new magic source. Trio completes work-song after physical clearing.

Narrator: A blue ribbon of water curled through the arch. The stage ribbons lifted and danced.

Trio: Turn together. Let it flow.

04 p28.4

STAGING: Duri swims through safe cleared opening with basket and rings one bell. First reply reaches friends.

Duri: Time to finish my round!

Narrator: Ding! A little answer came back from the first open window.

29 The imps make room

01 p29.1

STAGING: Both imps sit safely on pillows; quiet song reaches them. Performer looks at reopened route, not just defeat pose.

Performer Imp: They're singing now. Why didn't they sing for us?

---

02 p29.2

STAGING: Roshan points to clear arch and stable side props; explanation grounded in visible change.

Roshan: Your scenery blocked the way. A bigger show couldn't fix that.

---

03 p29.3

STAGING: Magician addresses Duri as he passes, with apology and an offered practical task.

Magician Imp: We didn't mean to trap you. Can we help?

Duri: Keep that path open.

---

04 p29.4

STAGING: Imps fold loose cloth/tidy cushions away from route. No reblocking or destruction of costume identity.

Narrator: They folded their banner and tucked the cushions safely beside the stage.

---

05 p29.5

STAGING: Hana gives them space at edge of ensemble, not exclusive centre. Nari sets a small answering beat.

Hana: There's room for your big moves too.

Nari: And a little pause after them!

30 A delivery of answers

01 p30.1

STAGING: Duri's genuine delivery sequence: first shop neighbour receives bell; chorus carried by clear current, no invented named cast.

Narrator: Duri rang at the shops. One neighbour answered. Then two.

---

02 p30.2

STAGING: Bathhouse doorway: familiar mint tiles; another bell delivered, neighbours hum.

Narrator: He rang at the bathhouse. Warm voices joined the tune.

---

03 p30.3

STAGING: Tram platform: bell and fluttering ribbons. Tram passes without threatening cleared props; p4 pulse now harmless.

Narrator: At the tram, bells chimed. The song came all the way back.

---

04 p30.4

STAGING: Stage ensemble: trio plus Roshan, Duri returns to them, costumed imps at sides. Roshan starts her own note confidently.

Roshan: My turn.

Everyone: Little voice, big blue sea.
Sing with you, sing with me.

---

05 p30.5

STAGING: Wide city response as map pays off. Hold uncluttered faces and broad expressive figures.

Everyone: Make a space and let it through.
There's a place for me and you.

Narrator: Roshan sang. Then she left a space for the answer.

31 Home with Rumi

01 p31.1

STAGING: Return via pool portal, same seahorse fountain and rainbow. Castle boundary explicit.

Narrator: Roshan and Rumi swam back to the pool. The rainbow was still turning.

02 p31.2

STAGING: Quiet honest connection to wider unresolved story, no new quest or candle clue.

Roshan: We haven't found the candle.

Rumi: No. But you helped a whole neighbourhood find its voice.

03 p31.3

STAGING: Roshan chooses to answer distant courier taps with a tap of her own. Close the personal arc through action.

Narrator: Far below came three little taps.

Roshan: I hear you.

Narrator: She tapped three times back.

32 A little voice. A whole city listening.

01 p32.1

STAGING: Illustrated back: cast gathered in familiar neighbourhood, open arch and stored crates subtly visible. Separate future cover view, not a claimed existing action frame.

Narrator: Tap. Tap. Tap.
